Albany 26th March 1828

My dear Sir

The 5th of the next month is the day set for the sale of the Schuyler property, under the Duncan mortgage. Whether the sale will be suffered, or an attempt be made to get rid of the same, is a point of interest in Chancery, I cannot say; but as it is necessary that I should be authorized to convey for your brother, I enclose a power of attorney for his execution.

It should be acknowledged, or proved, so that it may be recorded. The latter may be done by a subscribing witness, before a Commissioner, in New York.

I remain

Yours with great esteem

John V. Henry

Peter Kean Esq

Ursino.

I presume I am only to bid so as to cover all principal interest and charges.
